

THEY ARE BUT DREAMS.

Those beautiful roses, those stalks of cotton in full bloom, and corn with green silks and tassels; with honey bees working on them; those ripe bananas, that green grass on the lawn, smelling like watermelons, have all vanished over night. Alas! the grass that smelt good, now is sour; the roses that nodded at the spring-like sunshine, now droop; the sparrows, and the blue birds, and the wrens, that sang and worked, building nests, have suspended operations pending material and suitable weather. Those hogs that were too fat to enjoy life, that looked as if they would have to be carried over, or to cold storage, have gambolling sticks run under the leaders of their hind legs, with a cob in their mouth with the hair scalded off. The flesh pots are boiling, lard is being poured up and cracklings stowed away; sausage mills are grinding, and about the place can be detected the odor of sage and red pepper, and livers and chitlings, and souper, backbones, and sich.

The fellow who started that row about the earth floating off its course, and getting three hundred miles away from the cold weather, has not been heard of, and that second hand overcoat feels good though it smells some of moth balls; and the weather man has been restored to his former place of esteem and honor. We think more of this old world than ever we did before. We could hardly believe the tales that were told on it, still appearances were mightily against it.

Now we can all pull off our coats, as soon as the weather will admit, and go to work, feeling that the atmosphere has been thoroughly sterilized, and the bugs frozen to death, and that health in abundance awaits us just over Saxon, who is actively engaged the way. You know you can find hundreds of people who have their doubts as to what might happen to us if we didn't have sufficient cold weather to kill out the germs that are accumulated during the spring and summer. They are sure, however, that fever would abound at every house, and that pestilence would break out so fast that one couldn't drive up and down the road without being flagged by a red rag on some man's gate.

Now we can go to work feeling that all of this is done away with practically, just by sitting still and allowing the hands on Time's clock to creep around to the right place.

So those good summer-time things that we were enjoying, enjoying because we couldn't get rid of them, are now dreams of the past, but pleasant ones.

DEATH OF MRS. PARKER.

Mrs. Parker, mother of our fellow townsman, Robert Parker, died at her home in Abbeville yesterday, and was buried today at Troy. Mrs. Parker suffered a stroke of paralysis last week, and lived only a few days afterward. Mr. Parker's place of business is closed to-day for the above reason, and to allow his employes to attend the funeral.

AN ATHLETIC CLUB.

There is a movement on foot here to organize an Athletic Club, or rather to form a new club. The old club was very attractive for all young men who were members, and they derived great physical benefits through their practices and meetings.

We are pleased to see the movement revived and hope the boys success. All interested in such a movement can learn more of the particulars by interviewing Heard Saxon, who is actively engaged in the new proposed club.

JUSTICE JOHN R. TYSON RESIGNS.

John R. Tyson has resigned as Justice of the Supreme Court of Alabama, and will go to practicing law. It has been rumored that he will accept a position as chief counsellor of a large railroad, while another reports that he will practice in the State and Federal courts with a large law firm.

The Montgomery Advertiser says in reference to Justice Tyson's successor:

"That Judge S. D. Weakley, of Birmingham will be appointed by Governor Comer to the office of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Alabama, to succeed Justice John R. Tyson, whose resignation takes effect on the coming Friday is the opinion advanced strongly by many county and state officials yesterday."

Gossip bases the appointment on the fact that Judge Weakley has already occupied the position, having been appointed by Governor Jelkes, to fill out the term of Chief Justice McCallum whose death occurred in 1906. It is also a known fact that Judge Weakley is one of Birmingham's most prominent lawyers, and he has, since the resignation of Justice Tyson was announced, been urged by his friends to be a candidate for the position.

COURT DAY, BUT NO COURT

Today was the date heretofore appointed for Judge Jones to come to Dothan and open the U. S. District court, but up to our going to press, the Judge had not arrived, nor had anything been heard of him explaining why he did not come, or instructing the clerk what to do.

There are a number of cases to be tried in this division and the parties at interest are anxious for a hearing; but the presiding Judge seems to have forgotten them and also his duty to come here and have a jury drawn that these pending cases may be heard some time soon.

The action of Judge Jones relative to this new district causes criticism and from those most interested, it seems only just. Probably Judge Jones does not intend to try any cases here until the new Federal Court rooms are finished and put in readiness for business. Anyway, it would be only fair and just to our people for Judge Jones to come out and tell the people what to expect and not keep them waiting for a trial from time to time, and doing nothing towards getting the court regularly organized and in shape to do business.

WHERE BULLETS ARE THICKEST.

The adjutant had tortured the squad of recruits on company drill battalion drill, and every other form of movement that he could think of, and at last throw in a little instruction of his own on personal behavior in face of the enemy.

"On the field of battle a brave soldier will always be found where the bullets are thickest, you understand. Private Jones where would you be found, then, on the battlefield?"

Private Jones—"In the ammunition wagon, sir."—Tit-Bits.

The City Improvement Club will meet with Mrs. R. C. Williams on Wednesday afternoon.

BRYAN IN OZARK.

A communication from Ozark to the Advertiser gives the program for the entertainment of Hon. W. J. Bryan, who will be in that city to-morrow night.

"Arrangements for the coming of William Jennings Bryan next Tuesday night have been completed and the official program announced as follows: monthly

1. Reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martin immediately on arrival.

2. Breakfast served at 7:30 Wednesday morning, to which the press and distinguished citizens of the Wiregrass belt have been invited.

3. General reception in the rotunda of the court house at 8 o'clock sharp.

Ozark expects thousands of people here on this occasion from abroad and preparing for their reception.

We expect to see a crowd of Dothanites meet Mr. Bryan at the A. C. L. Depot Wednesday morning and will hope to see him hear him make a few remarks from the platform, if nothing more.

FIRE AT MILTON, FLORIDA—$200,000 LOSS.

Pensacola, Fla., Jan. 31.—For the second time in its history, Milton, thirty miles east of Pensacola, was practically destroyed by fire, which started here shortly after 1 o'clock this morning and before extinguished, had caused a loss estimated at nearly two hundred thousand dollars.

The flames originated in the store of the Fisher and Company from unknown causes and with a high wind blowing, could not be checked. The town has no regular fire department but with hose running to the river and with hand pumps, the citizens fought bravely to save the residences and succeeded after many hard hours' work in stopping the fire after a few residences had been destroyed in addition to the business block.

Mr. M. B. Byrd, who has been for several months occupying a portion of Dr. Peterson's residence on North Foster street, is moving today to one of Mr. Sol. Larrie's residence on South Oaks St.

Society

and Items of Interest of Women

MRS. KATE DOWNING GHENT Telephone 289.

The following from the Atlanta Constitution tells the story:

"The 'Billy Possums' will be come the petted darling of America, the fad of the modish woman, and the mascot of the incoming administration. He has already been modeled by the toy designer; material, the color and texture of his woolly coat is being manufactured; a toy factory has hundreds of hands employed in building him in three sizes—life-size, medium size, and four inches long."

Shades of the immortal George Washington! What are we coming to as a nation? Now this business of manufacturing "Billy Possums" is beginning to look serious.

Surely, hasn't the long-suffering public endured enough of the Tommy-rot? Is each succeeding president to be caricatured by some animal made conspicuous by his having killed one on a hunting expedition, or partaken of some special meat at a feast?

First we suffered shame and mortification seeing our country women—who had better sense go about lugging great big stuffed bears, simply because President Roosevelt delighted in hunting and killing this king of the forest. And now that Judge Tat has simply been present at a possum dinner given in his honor must he for the balance of his mortal life be caricatured as "Billy Possum" and his administration of the grandest country on the face of the globe go down in history as having for its symbol a mean, sneaking, dirty little animal like a possum—who will creep up to your hen house under cover of the night and kill your fine poultry by biting them in the neck and sucking their life blood out. It is one thing to be known as "Teddy Bear" and quite another to be dubbed "Billy Possum." A bear would at least attack its prey in the open daylight, while everyone knows that a sneaking, long-tailed possum does its dirty work in the dark; every hunter knows that to possum-hunting he must sally forth after darkness has covered the face of the earth.

And where is this thing to stop? We rise up to enquire. If the next President is given a banquet and the "Pierre de resistance" happens to be kid, and he should smack his lips or equally remark that it tasted good, wouldn't some enterprising firm jump immediately to make preparations for the manufacturing of plush kids, and there would be thrown upon the market carloads of "William Kids."

Can't anyone see that the United States is in a fair way to being made the laughing stock of the world? The President-elect will do his country a service that will make his name immortal and his praises will be sung through the

LAFAYETTE STREET CHURCH TO BE COMPLETED AT ONCE.

Work was let to contractor Brown a month ago to build the Sunday School room of the new proposed LaFayette Street M. E. Church and work was begun several weeks ago, which has been pushed along as fast as possible.

It was announced then that only the Sunday School room was to be built with the main body of the church to be a further and later consideration.

But we are pleased to learn that at a meeting this morning, it was decided to go on and build the church complete. The first contract will go on to completion however, and the same be fitted up for use before the beginning of work on the church proper. It is expected that the first contract will be completed and the rooms ready for service not later than Easter Sunday.

ages, if he will positively refuse to endorse the threatened calamity that is about to befall us, but should he fail to do his duty by suppressing the "Billy Possum," we can as a nation of self-respecting women refuse to countenance any woman who so far forgets her dignity as to lag them about if they must be carried, let the men do the work and let the women sit back and look on. Amen!

Mrs. Ed. Malone Hostess in Honor of Mrs. J. W. Burney.

At the home of Mrs. Ed. Malone Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, was given by that charming hostess, a beautiful domino party in honor of her guest, Mrs. J. M. Burney, of Boston, Ga.

Mrs. A. Y. Malone and Mrs. J. H. Jones received in the lovely hall, where at an artistically appointed table Mrs. N. H. McCallum served punch. The hall for decoration had a profusion of palms, ferns and white carnations. Mrs. Ed. Malone, Mrs. Burney and Mrs. John Flowers received in the parlor, where the color note of pink was emphasized by a profusion of carnations of the soft shell pink, so dear to the artist eye.

The dining room, magnificent with all its paneling was made bright with green and red for color scheme. The table with its tracery of delicate green vine and decoration of red satin ribbon and vase of red carnations, resting on a lovely lace center piece over red satin, held cut glass bowls of crystallized ginger and salted almonds, which were passed during the games. At their conclusion, an elegant three course luncheon was served.

Mrs. Burney, the charming guest of honor, has, by her lovely personality, made many friends in Dothan, who will welcome her with open arms should she again visit our city.

Dothan society loses one of its brightest and most charming members by the removal to a distant city of Mrs. B. I. Moody. She has hosts of friends who have come in contact with her gracious personality in the work of the Baptist church, as well as in the clubs who will miss her genial, smiling face. Mrs. Moody and children left this afternoon to join Mr. Moody, at Monroe, La., their future home.

The Hungarian Band will appear for the first time before a Dothan audience Thursday evening at the Elite Theatre. This band, you will remember, was announced at the last Lyceum attraction as having traveled all over the world and parts of Missouri. This is enough to bring out all the music lovers of Dothan without the added information that they will not use just any kind of puno, but carry with them their own instrument.

Expected that the first contract will be completed and the rooms ready for service not later than Easter Sunday.

Everyone interested in this new church movement will be delighted to know that there is to be no stop until the LaFayette Street Church is a completed building. All those whom we have heard express an opinion say that the church was badly needed and that it will fill a want that the community would have suffered without.

The Methodist people of that part of town will appreciate the liberality shown in this instance by our fellow citizen, Mr. J. D. Flowers, who has worked incessantly for the new church, and it is through his influence and money that the church is to be erected.

COLDEST IN TWO YEARS.

The severe, cold north-west winds here yesterday and Saturday put this section, where only summer weather prevailed formerly, to shivering. The thermometer fell to some 14 degrees below freezing point Saturday night. This was the coldest snap experienced here in two years past, and many water pipes were frozen and many homes were without water yesterday.

HOTEL DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Carabella, Fla., Jan. 30.—The old hotel here is in flames and here is no hope of saving it. Sparks have set the block across the street on fire and at 10 o'clock it seems the business heart of the city will be wiped out. The property loss now is $55,000 with less than half covered by insurance. A high wind prevails and the fire fighting facilities are very limited.

L. Gantner, Traveling Claim Agent, for the Central of Georgia Railway, was in Dothan on business for the road.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Holmes last week, a fine boy.

Mrs. B. I. Moody and two children, Braxton and Rosalind, left this evening to join Mr. B. I. Moody, who is engaged in business at Monroe, La.

Quite a crowd was in attendance of Judge Leslie's court today. A good many cases are on the docket, the most important of which is that of Will Varner (colored) charged with robbing P. K. Kellum in this city some three weeks ago, an account of which appeared in the Eagle at that time.

WHAT HE GOT OUT OF IT.

We live in an age when no matter what one does somebody wants to know what he is getting out of it. It is true that never before has there been so much graft, so many cases of breach of trust, so much stealing from the public till yet there are still those remaining who do things through love of humanity.

Pat. 1900 is not entirely dead. Many able men and women are giving of their time and talent in order to better conditions, and are getting no hint out of it.

In most cases they get abuse and ridicule; they inspire their business interest, invite malicious investigation and eternal hatred; too often meet with most violent opposition from those for whom they labor. If they are strong, they override the storms of opposition. If they are weak, they are carried down beneath the rushing waves. Many sordid and selfish people cannot conceive how any man or woman can unselfishly labor for the mere sake of humanity and get nothing for themselves out of it. They are so steeped in sordidness and selfishness that they will not even deny the sneer of the miserable bigot. There are others, really intelligent, who carefully make statements to the effect that somebody has sold out, is getting something out of it. This is all wrong. It is often cruelly unjust. No one should ever make a statement that they do not have the proof to substantiate. No really broad man will do so. To traduce the name of others, either maliciously or carelessly rebounds on you.

When you make the statement that somebody has sold out, is getting something out of it, you unconsciously betray yourself, and your hearers know that if you were similarly situated you would be dead certain to sell out, or get something out of it.—Boston Record.

You can tell when a man isn't a success in business by how sure he is somebody else who is a success is also a thief.
